

Adopt a waiting child.

Your love

completes the picture.

1-800-99-ADOPT

www.njadopt.org

Many older children have never felt the love and security of a permanent home. They want to be part of your family picture. To adopt, you don't have to own a home or be married. You can have other children, work outside the home and be any age, as long as you're an adult. The main requirement is that you can love a child who needs it most. Becoming an adoptive parent is easier than you think.